Scope and Content Note

The 1985 Chicago Bears football team visited the White House on October 7, 2011, to celebrate their Super Bowl Championship. They were not invited at the time they won due to the Challenger Space Shuttle explosion.

This includes footage shot by the official videographer from the reception, inside and outside the White House. Footage includes interviews with players, people posing with the Super Bowl trophy, and the U. S. Marine Band playing.

System of Arrangement

Staff Member Office Files are maintained at the folder level by staff members within their individual offices and document all levels of administration activity.
