Researchers are advised to consult the copyright law of the United States (Title 17, USC) which governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Provenance

Official records of Barack Obama’s presidency are housed at the Barack Obama Presidential Library and administered by the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) under the provisions of the Presidential Records Act (PRA).

Processed by

Staff Archivists, 2025.

Scope and Content Note

President Obama designated new national monuments using his authority under the Antiquities Act during his Administration.

There are photographs of President Obama signing a proclamation to designate Ft. Monroe, in Hampton, Virginia, a National Monument, on November 1, 2011. There are also photos of President Obama designating five other new National Monuments, including the Charles Young Buffalo Soldiers National Monument in Ohio and the Harriet Tubman Underground Railroad National Monument in Maryland, during a signing ceremony on March 25, 2013. Both occurred in the Oval Office.

System of Arrangement

Staff Member Office Files are maintained at the folder level by staff members within their individual offices and document all levels of administration activity.
