Subject: RE: EOP OA OCFO and OGC - Kindness matters

If she asked you to then I think it's okay?

The only reason I suggest being careful with money stuff is because of Hatch Act stuff, which sets restrictions on monetary "gifts" staff can give to other staff and contractors, though in this case Althea donated to an independent organization so I'm sure it's fine.

But with CFC, when staff donate to charity, we do not "advertise" per se who the eagles and double eagles (the more generous/big donors) are since financial donations are considered sort of private/personal/sensitive.

But if [redacted] asked you to, what are you supposed to say? I don't think it's a big deal, just in the future I would think twice and/or seek Cathy or Don's approval before sharing information about what a staff member donated to a charity or organization or anything along those lines.

Of course, you can be the judge of what you think is appropriate. Just sharing my two cents since you've seemed open and receptive in the past!

Yes, she did ask me to send it to staff, was this inappropriate?

Very sweet of [redacted] to donate. Just some friendly advice though: I'd be careful with sharing information when it has to do with money. Perhaps [redacted] said it was okay for you to share with staff, though?
