Subject: RE: More Incendiary Devices

P6/b(6)

Envelope that ignited was addressed to Secretary Napolitano, which is consistent with note found in package yesterday criticizing highway signs encouraging citizens to report suspicious security incidents.

Subject: More Incendiary Devices

As being reported in the media, two more suspect envelopes have been identified, this time at the US Postal Service Facility in NE Washington D.C.....one envelope ignited, the other is being rendered safe.....no injuries reported.....all government mailrooms are being closed as a precautionary measure.....efforts continuing to find other incendiary envelopes.
