'Voter intimidation' case in Philly

Catholic charities align with anti-life proposals

American Life League says two prominent Catholic charities have "divorced themselves" from church teaching in supporting the Obama administration's healthcare proposal.

'Stimulus' grants going to porn producers?

"Stimulus" funds awarded to the National Endowment for the Arts may be being used to produce pornographic material. [Editor's note: This story contains descriptions that some may find offensive.]

Perspective: Traditionalists 'better get used to' polyamory

Someone needs to tell Newsweek that families - especially children - are safer and thrive better in a traditional marriage setting.
