Patrick:

How's it going man? Long time no see. I hope things are well. Below is a message from my [REDACTED] I promised him that I would forward the message to the White House. It's about the "Beer Summit". Thanks for being a receiver of all these forwards. Keep in touch and give me updates periodically.

Thanks,
Adrian Allen

Mr. President,

The realization of how historic and socially pivotal your "Beer Summit" with Prof. Gates and Sgt. Crowley can be just hit me. These two unintended American social icons must be brought to realize how important and powerful they, together, can be in changing the state of social relations in our country. I suggest that if they can come to honestly realize and admit to each other and themselves how both their actions/reactions on that day of their meeting were subconsciously influenced or even dictated by their individual life experiences, they can then bring forth that life changing message to our whole nation.

I can not express what a profound impact they would have if they would embark upon a tour across this nation speaking with (not to) police organizations and groups of minority youths. Imagine the societal change if Black and Hispanic youths began to assume that police officers were their protectors and not their persecutors. Imagine the societal change if police officers began to assume that Black and Hispanic youths were not criminals by nature or sub-culture.

Today Prof. Gates and Sgt. Crowley are uniquely positioned to begin implanting this vision/understanding into our national and individual psyche. Only God knows when this wonderful (Dare I call it divine? Yes, I dare.) opportunity will present itself again. Their task will be daunting and initially unappreciated. It will even initially be unwelcomed and ridiculed by those who profit from the status quo. If Prof. Gates and Sgt Crowley do this, however, over time God's will and man's humble sacrifice will work to the peace and benefit of us all. America will show the world another undeniable example of human and democratic progress.

Again, it will be impossible for them to do this acting individually. They must be seen as acting in concert.

May God bless you and your family and may God bless the United States of America
Thank you for your consideration of my views.

Respectfully,
Willie Dirden
