Dear Mr. Michelle Obama

I'm writing this letter to you because I wanted you to see something.

I noticed that Mr. Obama was involved in a Beer Summit in the beginning of his office and various other involvements in smaller issues within our society. I have also noticed that you've been very active in people's lives promoting health and good will to others so I thought that I would write to you and show you something about the good will that I've gotten from our Government. I show this to you in great hopes that you might one day in passing point it out to your husband. I didn't want to bother him directly but I thought maybe you might want to hear about it.

There's been a lot of crime in my city, men have gone up missing being dumped in rivers, I've read about a lot of scandals with police officers hurting other citizens and assault crimes being swept under the carpet. Possible investigations but nothing ever comes to light, it's terrible really, people are more afraid of the police than the random crimes that normally occurs.

SO I'm writing this letter to you to tell you how these

Todd Thiemer.

P.S. I leave you with everything that I as a commonly educated citizen could find to assist myself along with a vow of honesty which I would hope you would consider when reading the actual complaint.

Before a police officer takes his oath they have to read this on a bible.

A police officer will never employ unnecessary force or violence and will use only such forces in discharge of duty as is reasonable in all circumstances. The use of force should be used only after discussion, negotiation and persuasion have been found to be inappropriate or ineffective. While the use of force is occasionally unavoidable, every police officer will refrain from unnecessary infliction of pain or suffering and will never engage in cruel, degrading or inhuman treatment of any person.

[Redacted]

You must never fear what you are doing when you know it is right.

Rosa Parks said that and I truly believe it.

God Bless you and your family.

Sincerely,

Todd Thiemer
