Dear Obama Family-

My name is Shamal Bryant. I am a [redacted]

[redacted] I am writing this letter, because I wanted you all to now that my family adores you guys. Despite being the first family, you all are just like us regular people. I would like to give you a brief summary of my background. I became a [redacted]

[redacted] Despite my background, I beat the odds. I never let my past dictate my future and I strive daily to teach [redacted] to do better than I. We are blessed by the best to be where we are and where we are headed. I thank God everyday for his blessings.

President Obama you're the coolest president ever and such an amazing man, who reminds me of [redacted] You're a gentleman at all times, but knows when to become a fighter. Cool under pressure and never let your nay sayers see you sweat. Now thats how you do it. You leave your nay sayers rubbing their heads in disbelief thinking he always lands on his feet, despite what's thrown your way. I love it. As [redacted] says this is chess not checkers.

Mrs. Obama oh how we just love you. A saying I learned on social media "you are matching his fly." To me that says fly meets fly and you two are at the top of your game. I have a [redacted] who you would love.

[redacted] I have to cover my arms they look like Michelle Obama's arms. I just laughed because her analogy of what her arms resembled were correct. After getting a good laugh, I said to her Michelle Obama arms are amazing and they look nice. That was the last time I heard a self conscious statement about her arms.

Sasha and Malia you ladies are simply beautiful. Your parents have done a great job keeping your lives as close to normal as possible. Your lives are so normal the public doesn't get the inside track to it. We see you guys entering and exiting the air craft or walking to The White House. I think thats how it should be. You ladies are a perfect example for female youth all over. I just want to say keep up the good work and continue to make your parents proud. I wish you ladies the best in all your endeavors.

One day if possible whether you guys are in the white house or not, I would like for my family to meet your family. Mrs. Obama I would love for [redacted] to be your assistant in one of your kid fit campaigns or any activity at the white house for children. It would make [redacted] day if anyone from your staff challenged [redacted] She (LOL). President Obama after your "beer summit" [redacted] has expressed that [redacted] wants to treat you to a Heineken and I would love for you to play [redacted] in a game of basketball. [redacted] and that would provide great laughs if [redacted] loss to Mr. President himself. Last and not least I could not send this letter without mentioning [redacted]

[redacted] She has done a lot for me and I would like to reward her with something from Team Obama (phone call, letter, visit, anything). I know you all are very busy these days being the FIRST FAMILY, but if one of these visions could be fulfilled that would make their day. I love to see smiles on my family faces and this would make them smile for a lifetime. Thank you for your time and consideration in this matter. We love you all and god bless.
