Dear Merry Lou:

Thank you for writing. Our Nation has made great strides over the last 8 years, and we should be proud of what we have accomplished together. I'm humbled by the privilege to serve in this Office, but I suspect that more than my Presidency, it's the optimism and hard work of people like you that have changed our country for the better.

America still faces many challenges, and our success is not inevitable. It will depend on all people raising their voices, rejecting the cynical notion that progress is not possible, and making sure our politics reflect what is best in us. I will keep your words of support in mind as I continue doing all I can to help bring about the kind of lasting change we can only make together.

Sincerely,

[POTUS AP]

Dear President Obama,

I am [redacted] and I have never requested an autograph from anyone, but then I have never admired and respected anyone as much as I admire and respect you. You have done a marvelous job of governing, and you are exactly what this country, and the world, needed. Your wonderful wife is an inspiration to me, and, as a retired teacher, I would like you to know that your two lovely daughters are role models for all students. You must be so proud. I realize that you are extremely busy campaigning for Secretary Clinton, but I have the "Audacity of Hope" that after the election, you might find time to autograph this copy of your book for me. If time does not permit, I certainly understand, but I wanted to let you know that I am very proud of you, your family, and everything you have done for the United States (especially the Affordable Care Act). You have not even left the Oval Office and already my husband and I miss your million watt smile.

Sincerely,

Merry Lou Hoynos

P.S. If you ever find yourself in [redacted] Texas, I hope you will be our guests at a "beer summit".

Regards, MLH
