Dear President Obama:

I am Mrs Rosanell Eaton of Franklin County, North Carolina.
It was quite a surprise and great honor that you recognized me in your Letter To the Editor of The New York Times dated August 12, 2015 for my long years of service in voting Rights.

At my age of 94, your encouraging words have given me even more inspiration, working for voting and civil rights in order to raise up more Black presidents and great leaders like you.

I am glad to have helped paved the way to elect you as our first president. "I am very proud of you." One of my greatest is to meet you in person at the White House.

I began the struggle at an early age. However, I want you to know that for the benefit of your future and that of your children and my grandchildren and all children "every creed and every race everywhere 'be Blessed'."

I intend to keep fighting for justice when and where I can.
Thank you for your continued support and prayers as "We The People" continue to combine our efforts to help make the United States of America a more perfect union.

I pray that God continues to Bless and keep you and your family in His care.

Sincerely,
Rosanell Eaton
