Subject: Ben's Chili Bowl

Just stopped by Ben's Chili Bowl to thank the volunteers who are working into the wee hours of the night tonight to sign folks up for ACA. Seven medical students arrived for a late night snack and are now helping sign people up too. Met a lovely unmarried couple. Guy signed up last year. Forcing his girl friend to sign up tonight. He said they aren't going home until she finishes. The owner asked me to give you her love and tell you she prays for you every day.
