

Sent: Thu, 17 Jan 2013 07:31:54 -0500
From: "Jarrett, Valerie" <valerie.jarrett@who.eop.gov>
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: Fw: Seizing the Newtown moment

P6/b(6)

From: Larry Tribe [mailto:larry@tribelaw.com]
Sent: Thursday, January 17, 2013 07:30 AM
To: Jarrett, Valerie
Subject: Seizing the Newtown moment

Hi Valerie,

"This time must be different." The President is making the case for effective change to restrict gun violence as well as it can possibly be made, marrying passion with reason. His 23 executive actions are a good start, but enacting the ambitious program that he and the VP opted to advocate, however steeply uphill, is a moral necessity. Bravo! After I've had open heart surgery (probably next month) to replace a defective aortic valve, I want to do all I can to help. I wrote to you yesterday because this seemed to me a defining moment both in this presidency and in our lifetimes, and I wanted both you and the President to know how deeply committed I am to be of whatever assistance I can.

All best,

Larry

Sent from my iPhone

Begin forwarded message:

From: Larry Tribe <larry@tribelaw.com>
Date: January 16, 2013 10:40:29 PM EST
To: Larry Tribe <larry@tribelaw.com>
Subject: Fwd: Nothing matters more

Sent from my iPhone

Begin forwarded message:

From: <larry@tribelaw.com>
Date: January 16, 2013 12:12:22 PM EST
To: <Valerie.Jarrett@who.eop.gov>
Subject: Nothing matters more

Yes!

This is one of the main reasons I believe so passionately in Barack and in his presidency. Nothing matters more. These are OUR children, all of them.

P6/b(6)

History will judge POTUS, and us, by how hard we try to get this done.

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] I want this to be part of the legacy I share with my former student.

Let me repeat: Nothing matters more.

Larry

Sent from my iPhone