Subject: FW: Bin Laden's burial at sea

Usama bin Laden was given a religious funeral prior to his burial at sea, senior military officials relayed to me in super top secret, triple encrypted hand written sticky note.

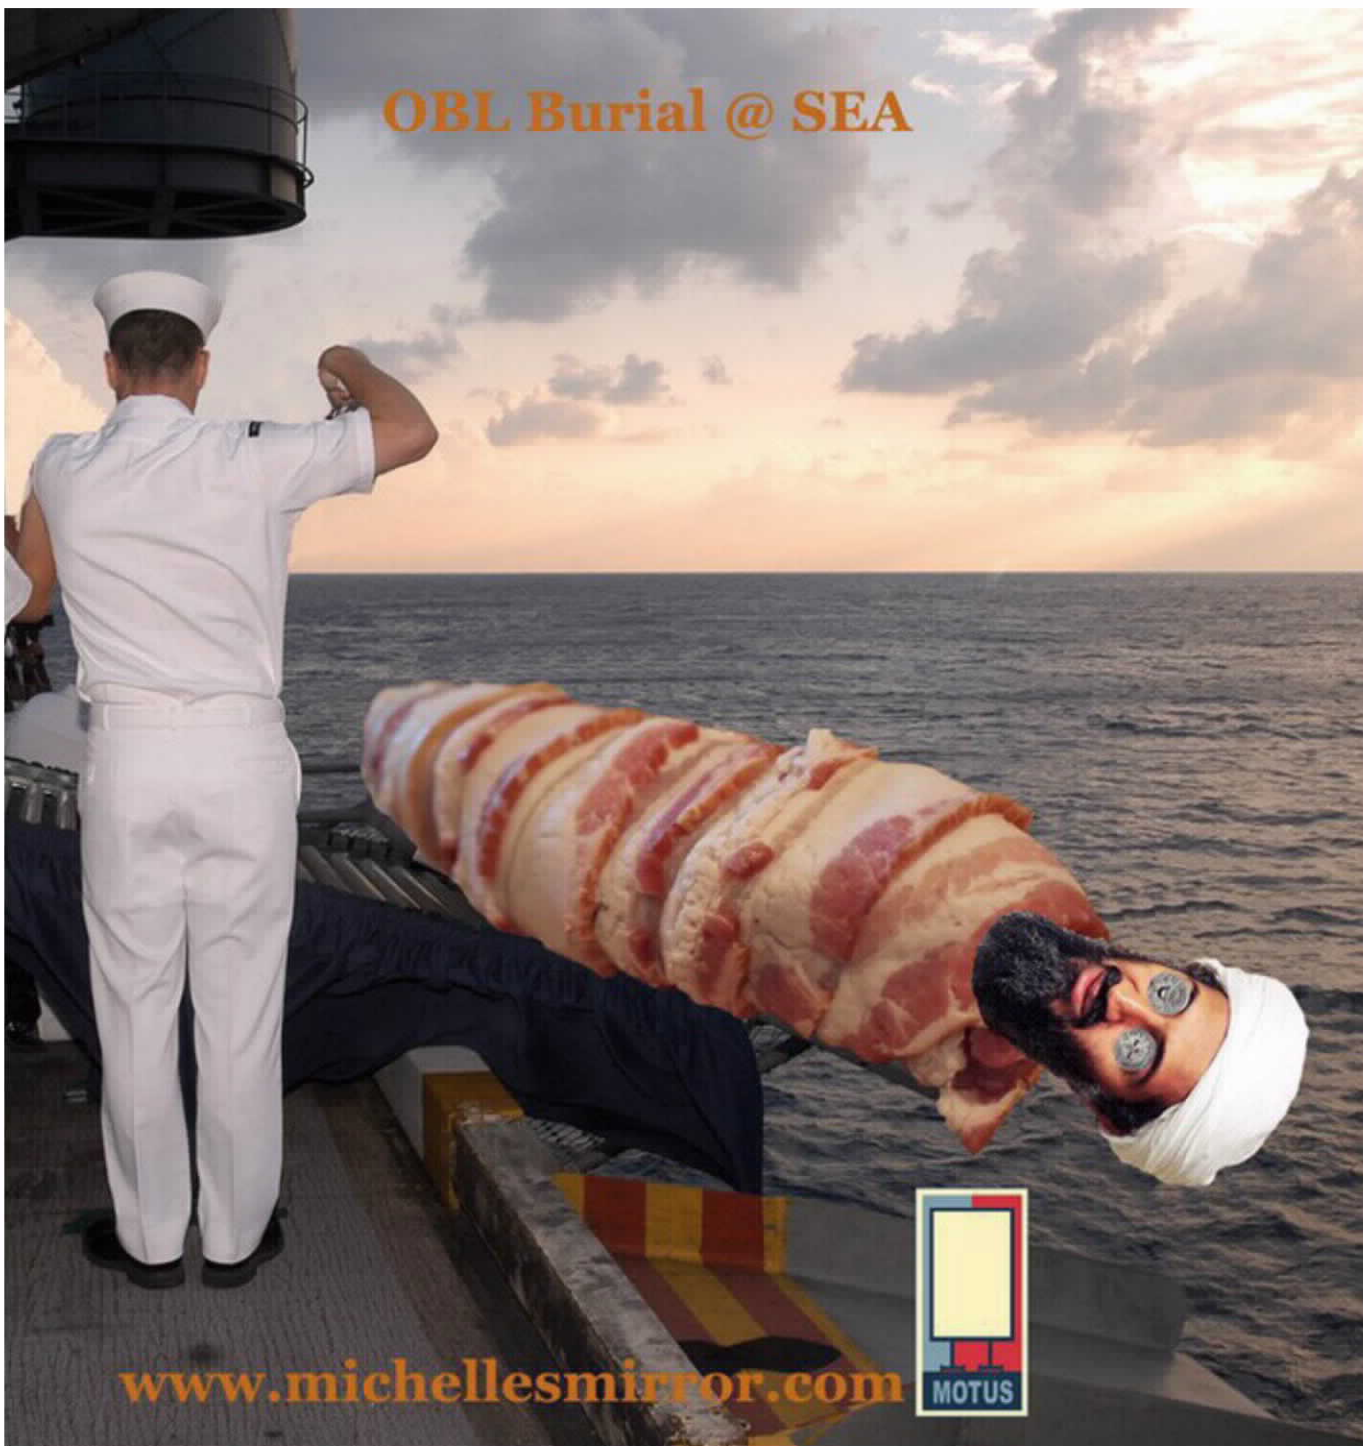

Religious rites were conducted on the deck of the USS Carl Vinson aircraft carrier at about 1:10 a.m. Monday in the Persian Gulf.

In accordance with Islamic practice, bin Laden was washed and wrapped in a white sheet before buried at sea at 2 a.m. local time, senior U.S. military and intelligence officials said.

Then, "In accordance with US Navy SEAL practice, the Team pissed on him, stuck a pulled pork sandwich in his mouth and a kosher hot dog up his ass, wrapped him in bacon and pushed him overboard with the garbage," a senior SEAL officer said.

(I have to add that, I was taken aback at 11:00AM Mass in Pembroke Pines this morning when Msgr O'Toole announced that Christ died for all of us and OBL is our brother and we should pray that he is in heaven)
