Oh?

And they're worried about the photographs of the dead bin Laden "inflaming" the Muslim goat humpers? Right! THIS kind of crap is what they are doing to get the goat humpers to attack us, come Hell or high water, he was unarmed...If indeed true, this little bit of info could have stayed in someone's friggin' ipod.

PS: "Resistance does not require a firearm"

THIS does NOT bode well for the American People. If this Regime sets THAT as a policy for dealing with people not friendly to them, for folks who say: Not NO! But Hell NO! I'd say: Go back to calling us Racists, I don't like being shot at for my "negative" opinion of this grossly inept Regime and my resistance to their overt takeover attempts of this Republic. What I've typed here, can be construed as a form of resistance, and thereby get me shot...

Who the heck cares what was in bin Laden's hands when he was shot dead? Those same hands were covered with American blood.

Shooting him on sight was the BEST thing they could have done. Can you imagine the mockery some kind of trial would have provided. Somehow the United States would have been painted the bad guy for wanting to bring this scumbag to justice. I'd say that SEAL should be written up for some kind of an award. Hey they give awards for everything else, why not where one is actually deserved?

-----ANOTHER RESPONSE-----

Good Evening Major:

I am praying that this sick administration does not try and put charges against the people who killed OBL while not having a weapon.

This really scares me since it would produce a lot of publicity to show the arab world how sorry we were that he was killed while not armed, and that a women was also killed.

Our country is sick.

-----ANOTHER RESPONSE-----

" bin Laden not armed when killed by US forces in raid of his compound ": So what? Neither were the folks in the Twin Towers armed (except maybe for a few FBI agents who died at their posts, like my old friend, former Captain Lenny Hatton, USMCR) when AQ attacked us. So fuck UBL and his old lady!

Semper Fi, Wally McT.
