Message:

Bravo, Mr. President! You deserve to be celebrated for authorizing the raid that killed Obama bin Laden.

I lived through the 9/11 attack in New York. I was on the street, only blocks away when the 2nd tower went down. I saw it's last moments, smoke curling up from the broken windows, and when I heard the sound of its impending fall, like an earthquake, I ran for cover. Even now, almost tens years later, I cry over that day. Over that moment when I knew that all those people still left in the building were lost. Heartbreaking, traumatic. I walked alone out of that war zone. Behind me, a cloud of smoke and dust had replaced the towers that had once been only hours before. It changed us all no matter where we were.

Now there is closure. Thank you for your vigilance and your perseverance on behalf of all the peace loving peoples of the world.
