I do actually! One is a lapel pin and the other is a tie pin, although I'm not sure which one is which without looking at the box.

Great! Quick question. Lorne is wondering about the two little pins (?) that come in the box with the medal. He wondered if they are lapel pins or something else? Do you happen to know what he's talking about?

Hi Caroline,

It was so great having you all here last week. I'm glad to hear everyone enjoyed the ceremony and reception, and thank you for also being such a great group to work with.

Things unfortunately haven't calmed down, but Thanksgiving was a nice break and the holidays are coming soon enough. If I can be of any assistance in the short time we have left, please don't hesitate to let me know. And I'll be sure to stay in touch when I visit the city!

Thank you,
Henock

Henock—

Meant to send this last week but wanted to thank you so much for all of your help. It was an amazing event and you made the whole thing so smooth for us.

Hope things have calmed down a bit for you though I'm sure they haven't. Best of luck getting through January and please don't hesitate to reach out if you come to New York!

Subject: RE: Presidential Medal of Freedom Information

Hello Caroline,

We received confirmation for the timing of the Medal of Freedom ceremony on November 22nd, so I wanted to pass along further arrival instructions/next steps:

Arrival Instructions

? Medalists should arrive to the Southeast Gates (15th and Alexander Hamilton Place NW – map is attached) at 11:45AM. We are asking medalists to come early so we can do a walkthrough of the ceremony. Mr. Michaels is permitted to bring ONE guest with him at this time if he'd like to have someone with him.

? Remaining guests can arrive at the Southeast Gates (15th and Alexander Hamilton Place NW) at 1:00PM. As a reminder, medalists are allowed to have up to 5 guests with them.

Information to Collect

? Could you please send over the following information by Wednesday evening:

- o Security information for Mr. Michaels and his guests using the attached spreadsheet.

- o The names of the guests Mr. Michaels would like in his group photo with the President and First Lady. Mr. Michaels is not required to have guests in his photo.

- o The name and phone number of the best POC to contact Mr. Michael's guests, in case we have trouble finding them when they arrive at 1:00PM.

Thank you again for all of your help. We look forward to having Lorne join us for this exciting day and please don't hesitate to reach out with any questions you may have.

Henock

Subject: Presidential Medal of Freedom Information

Hello Mr. Michaels,

P6/b(6)

It was a pleasure speaking with you today. As I mentioned over the phone, I wanted to send and collect some information regarding the upcoming Presidential Medal of Freedom Ceremony.

Event Details

· The Presidential Medal of Freedom Ceremony will take place at the White House on Tuesday, November 22. A time has not yet been determined, so we are asking all medalists to keep their calendar clear for the day if possible.

- The ceremony will take place in the East Room and will last approximately one hour with a reception taking place shortly after.

- All awardees are allowed to bring up to five family members or guests to the ceremony. We'll be reaching out shortly to collect their names and security information ahead of the event.

- The press release announcing this year's medalists will likely be released mid-November (approximately one or two weeks before the ceremony). We'll be sure to notify you in advance and are asking all medalists to keep the announcement close-hold until then.

Information to Collect for Wednesday, October 26th

1. Please provide the full name that you would like on your medal and citation.

2. Do you have any accessibility needs that we can accommodate the day of the ceremony?

3. Are you interested in participating in media interviews while at the White House?

4. Are you interested in participating in an interview with the White House's internal video team for use on whitehouse.gov? This would also take place at the White House.

Thanks again for taking the time to speak. We're looking forward to having you here for this special occasion next month.
