Dear Mr. President:

It was an honor to congratulate you in person on your election to a second term as President of the United States. Thank you for taking the time to meet with me.

As the debate moves forward, I will continue to offer support for the difficult choices that need to be made around revenues and entitlements—stressing the importance of making sure discretionary spending in coming years is preserved, so that we can continue the progress on programs promoting opportunity and economic growth both here and abroad.

Thank you for your efforts to ensure that the country meets its long-term fiscal challenge in a way that will allow critical public investments to continue and be strengthened. Melinda and I are grateful for your continued commitment to these important issues, and we look forward to working with you during your second term.

Sincerely,

Bill
