Subject: Kennedy Center Schedule (December)

Happy Veterans Day!

As most of you are aware, the Kennedy Center (<http://www.kennedy-center.org/>) provides the President with three Presidential Boxes for his personal use, as well as that of his invited guests. The Presidential Boxes are located in the Eisenhower Theater, the Concert Hall and the Opera House. The President is given access to tickets for every performance put on in these theaters. If the First Family or the VPOTUS elects not to use the tickets, however, they are passed on to members of the administration. The process for obtaining these tickets is as follows:

Once I have been notified that the First Family or the Vice President's family will not be using the tickets, I will offer them to the Chief of Staff, Deputy Chiefs of Staff and Senior Advisors. From there, they are offered to staff on a "first come first serve" basis. The announcement of ticket availability will come from me approximately 24 to 48 hours prior to the show. I will issue the tickets no earlier than 24 hours before curtain call. I have attached the Kennedy Center schedule of available performances in December. If you've requested tickets in the past or if you are a frequent recipient of tickets, please consider to those who have not had the opportunity to attend a Kennedy Center performance before submitting a request. Our goal is to provide the opportunity to attend the Kennedy Center to as many people as possible.

Ticket availability is limited to 2 tickets per request. Additionally, please keep the following in mind:

1. Should the First Family need the tickets after they've been given away, they must be returned to me for reissue.
2. Guests are representing the President and as such must dress and act accordingly. The dress code is business casual at minimum. No jeans.
3. DO NOT BRING FOOD AND/OR DRINKS (EXCEPT FOR WATER) INTO THE VIEWING AREA.
4. If you arrive late to a show, do not enter the viewing area until after intermission. Entering while a performance is going on is distracting to the performers, Kennedy Center guests and reflects poorly upon us.
5. Do not enter and exit the viewing area during the performance. Intermission provides guests with the opportunity to get snacks/use the facilities/etc.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thanks,

Darienne
