DATE: March 4, 2016
LOCATION: Oval Office
TIME: 4:55 PM
From: Cecilia Muñoz

I. PURPOSE

You will take a departure photo with Noemie Levy and her immediate family. Noemie has worked for the White House since 2012, most recently as a Senior Policy Advisor in the Office of Science and Technology Policy focusing on the BRAIN Initiative and STEM Education. She previously served as a Policy Assistant in the Domestic Policy Council's Office of Social Innovation and Civic Participation.

Noemie and her family proudly immigrated to the United States from France through the H-1B visa program in 1996. Next week marks the 20-year anniversary of their arrival to the United States.

II. PARTICIPANTS

BYRON AUGUSTE DEPARTURE PHOTO

DATE: March 4, 2016
LOCATION: Oval Office
TIME: 4:55 PM
From: Jeff Zients

I. PURPOSE

You will take a departure photo with Byron Auguste. Byron served for two years as a DAP for Economic Policy and Deputy Director of the National Economic Council, where he worked on jobs and labor markets; education and skills policies including WIOA, "job-driven training" and TechHire; US-China 10-year mutual visa validity; and U.S. infrastructure, including transportation legislation and Build America P3s.

Since his departure, Byron co-founded Opportunity@Work, a not-for-profit with a 10-year goal "to empower 1 million more Americans to work and earn to their full potential" by facilitating investment by employers to open inclusive talent pipelines, and making innovations to unlock human capital accessible to all Americans. He also serves on boards of Hope Street Group and Washington Center for Equitable Growth. Raised in Detroit and Phoenix, Byron earned a Yale B.A. in economics and political science, and a doctorate in economics from Oxford University, as a Marshall Scholar.

You met Byron's parents, Ronald and Anita Auguste, at a Phoenix event in late 2014. Byron will be joined by his wife Emily Bloomfield, founder and CEO of Monument Academy, a public charter school for homeless and foster children in Northeast D.C., his sons Daryl [REDACTED] and Nelson [REDACTED] and his daughter Juliet [REDACTED]

KELSEY MERRICK DEPARTURE PHOTO

DATE: March 4, 2016
LOCATION: Oval Office
TIME: 4:55 PM
From: Jeff Zients

I. PURPOSE

You will take a departure photo with Kelsey Merrick. In July, Kelsey left her position as Senior Advisor for Tax and Fiscal Policy at the National Economic Council where she worked primarily on developing new tax proposals for your FY 2016 Budget, including reforms to child care and education credits and repeal of the stepped-up basis capital gains tax loophole. ROSANNA TORRES DEPARTURE PHOTO

DATE: March 4, 2016
 LOCATION: Oval Office
 TIME: 4:55 PM
 From: Shaun Donovan

I. PURPOSE

Rosanna Torres was formerly Confidential Assistant for the Associate Director of General Government Programs in OMB, a position she held since March 2014. She briefly transitioned to continue assisting Andrew Mayock as Deputy Director for Management in OMB until this past December. Born and raised in San Juan, Puerto Rico, Rosanna moved to the mainland seven years ago to join the Census Bureau as a survey statistician before joining the Administration.

Joining Rosanna today is [redacted] Alejandro — [redacted] her mom, sister and future parents in law. Alejandro is a managing auditor in the Department of Defense. Her mom, Rosa, has retired after over 25 years of admirable service as a first grade teacher in Puerto Rico's public education system. Her sister, Marirosa, is also dedicated to public service, working in the front office of Mount Auburn Elementary of the Dallas Education System. Alejandro's dad, Felix Laboy, is a prominent mechanical engineer in Puerto Rico's industrial sector. He and his wife, Leida, built the reliability company he presides today, VIBRA, from the ground up and now has over 50 employees with offices in Mexico, the Dominican Republic, and Puerto Rico.

Rosanna proudly continues to serve the Administration in the Department of Treasury's State and Local Finance office as a Policy Advisor, dedicated to working on Puerto Rico's current fiscal crisis.

ANNE WALL DEPARTURE PHOTO

DATE: March 4, 2016
LOCATION: Oval Office
TIME: 4:55 PM
From: Amy Rosenbaum

I. PURPOSE

Anne served as Deputy Assistant to the President for Legislative Affairs and Senate Liaison from 2011-2014. In addition to advocating for your legislative agenda in the Senate, Anne led the confirmations effort for executive and judicial nominees. Anne began her public service career as a member of Senator Dick Durbin's staff after briefly practicing law in Chicago.

Anne will be accompanied by her mother, father, and younger brother. [REDACTED]

Jon Wall, Anne's brother, made his music dreams come true as an adult by earning a living playing guitar. He first became interested in guitar as student at Marist High School when, unbeknownst to his parents, he spent many nights sneaking out to Chicago's famous Checkerboard Lounge on the South Side. He is now on the faculty of the Old Town School of Folk Music in Chicago.

P6/b(6)

[REDACTED] Mike Wall is about to retire from a 30+ year law career at Rothschild, Barry, and Myers, a small litigation firm founded by Justice John Paul Stevens. Liz Wall is an artist and art teacher and shows her work at studios in Chicago and in the Southwest Suburbs.
